

IN A JAM WITH LBAM!

A.K.A. LIGHT BROWN APPLE MOTH

It's harvest time in California, and Nate sets out to visit his older cousin Sammy who, with his father, owns and operates a blackberry farm in the Napa Valley.

Nate and Sammy decide to haul the berries to a local market for sale! With tourist season in full swing, these California blackberries are sure to go quickly and provide a good bit of pocket money as well.

As they're leaving for market the next day, Nate says, "Is it just me or does it seem like there are more crates than yesterday?"

Sammy explains that his dad got up extra early to pick a few crates from their other patch across the street.

Nate has a flashback of the inspector visiting the day before and cries out, "WAIT! You mean AFTER the inspector was here?" We can't be sure that they're not infested with light brown apple moth and we shouldn't bring them to the Lake County Market because the area is practically moth free!

Nate and Sammy decide that the only way to get themselves out of a potential jam by spreading light brown apple moth is to well, make jam!

The boys were delayed a day, but at the market, music is in the air, everyone is cheery by far, and there is money to be made with fresh blackberries in a jar!
